

“Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart”

Colossians 3:23

Ancient Egypt 3500BC 	Ancient Greece 800BC 	Ancient Maya 2500BC—AD1500 	Celts 500BC 	Romans AD 43 	Anglo-Saxons AD 450 	Vikings AD 793 	Tudors AD 1485 	Victorians AD 1837 	WW2 AD 1939
---	---	---	--	---	--	--	---	---	--

Ancient Greece

Year 3 Summer 1

Key Knowledge:

To know that:

Ancient Greece was split into many different City States (similar to counties today).

Ancient Greece was the birthplace of democracy.

Ancient Greece can be seen as the birthplace of Education.

The Ancient Greeks came from Greece, which lies on the Mediterranean Sea, and has approximately 200 habited islands.

Ancient Greece started nearly 4000 years ago and was most powerful between 2000 BC and 146 BC.

The Ancient Greeks worshipped many different gods (like the Ancient Egyptians).

The Ancient Greeks believed in many different myths that are still learnt about today.

The Greeks created trial by jury.

The Government collected money through taxes.

Throughout the world, buildings have been constructed in the style of Ancient Greece.

The first Olympic Games were held in 776 BC in the Greek City of Olympia.

The Ancient Greeks developed the first alphabet with vowels.

The Greeks quickly developed their boats and ships due to their geography.

Men and women were often treated differently across Ancient Greece (except in Sparta).

Alexander the Great invaded many lands and even conquered Ancient Egypt.

There are similarities and differences to daily life now and then.

Plato started the first university. Schools and universities today are mirrored on this and are an integral part of the development of modern society.

Each state had their own laws, government and money.

There are similarities and differences to daily life now and then.

Key Vocabulary

Ancient	This means very old and no longer existing.
Democracy	This word describes a country governed by elected people.
Government	The people who decide how things happen in a country.
City State	A city and the countryside around it.
Jury	A group of people that decide whether someone is guilty or innocent of a crime.
Myth	A traditional story with supernatural events or characters.

Key Dates / People:

Alexander the Great

Socrates and Plato

Herodotus seen as the Father of History.

Zeus

776 BC the first Olympics.

332 BC the Greek invasion of Egypt.

146 BC the Romans conquered Greece ending the Greek Empire.

